

Return this portion with remittance

classic _____ ☐

contemporary _____ ☐

danish _____ ☐

$1.75 per Lecture

Complete series of 3 Ballet Lectures $5.00

Note: Tickets may be purchased at the Edward Johnson Building on the evening of the lecture.

University Extension, University of Toronto, 84 Queen's Park, Toronto 5, Ontario.

Please find enclosed my remittance for the lectures noted on this form.
(Cheque payable to: University of Toronto)

Name _____

Address _____

City _____

Telephone _____

JOHN D. WEATHERSEED AND ASSOCIATES
Custom Printing • Graphic Arts Design

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

classic • contemporary • danish • 3 lectures with demonstrations

ballet

[1970?]]

P78-0055
, (15)

ballet

University of Toronto, University Extension presents a series of three lecture-demonstrations on three different types of ballet in co-operation with the National Ballet of Canada.

monday, november 23rd

classic

Celia Franca, artistic director of the National Ballet of Canada, with George Crum, musical director, will discuss "The Nutcracker"
and the development of classic ballet.
Dance demonstration.

thursday, november 26th

contemporary

Grant Strate, choreographer, and Harry Somers, composer, will discuss contemporary choreography and music. Illustrated with dancers from the National Ballet.

monday, november 30th

danish

Lillian Moore, internationally recognized authority on ballet and co-author with Erik Bruhn of a book on the 'Bournonville' style, will discuss the Danish ballet. Accompaniment
by Mary McDonald.

at 8.20 p.m.

Edward Johnson Building - Faculty of Music
(parking facilities behind Royal Ontario Museum)
Further information 928-2393